From a London paper, Nov. 27.

The Ellice transport from London to Gibraltar, with troops, was totally lost, on the 1st inst. on Point de Bares, on the coast of Gallicia, Lieut. Wallace, of the 60th regiment, and about 30 persons drowned. The rest, in saving themselves, underwent the most afflictive sufferings.

The Ellice was driven under a tremendous rock, (perhaps 150 feet perpendicular) where she was dashed to pieces—Some of the unfortunate persons reached the shore in the boats, which could not return to the vessel. The Ellice had 145 individuals on board, many of them females.

A letter from an officer, who was a passenger in the Ellice, says:—"Night at length came on—the master, who had climbed up the projection of the rock, called to me to follow him. I did so by making across one of the masts, which had gone overboard—happily I reached the rock, and gained a standing place about thirty feet up, whence I was extricated by a rope from above, at 11 o'clock that night; and by the same means, all who had been able to resist the dashing of the breakers, during the night, were hauled up early next morning. The scarcely I received were nothing to the wounds which some poor women (soldiers' wives) experienced, who were literally dragged up the rock, in almost a lifeless state, with infants thus clinging to their breasts for protection."

CLAIMS ON HAYTI.

It will be recollected by the public, and especially by those interested, that the Congress frigate, captain Morris, was ordered to Cape Henry last summer, to make a demand for the payment of property seized and sequestered in 1810 and 1811 by the emperor and king of Hayti; but owing to a wrong direction of the despatches, it proved unsuccessful. It is therefore to be hoped that congress will make another attempt; and the writer of this knows, from the authority of Chris-tophe's secretary, that if a proper application was made the money would be immediately paid; and, as it will relieve many worthy individuals, no doubt the government will be disposed to attend to it.
[Boston Gaz.

The British ship Nelly, from Liverpool, called off Savannah bar for orders on the 18th instant, and being sent to Charleston, got on Martin's Industry, and has billed. A sloop was sent from Savannah to save the materials. She had a cargo of salt and crates.

From the National Intelligencer.

The following intelligence, decisive of the fate of the unfortunate MINA, is translated from Mexican gazettes received in this city:

From the Gazette Extraordinary of Mexico, of November 1, 1817.

Silao, October 27.

Most Excellent Sir,—It is with the greatest pleasure I communicate to your excellency that I have taken prisoner the traitor Mina, together with twenty-five of his principal partisans, at the post of Benadito, appertaining to the plantation of Flachiquera, where he was stationed with 200 men. Half of them were killed, as well as the ringleader Moreno, whose head I caused to be brought to this place, where I have just arrived. I will send it to general Don Pasqual Linares as soon as possible; and I now anticipate this information to your excellency on account of its importance. God preserve your excellency many years.

FRANCISCO ORRANTIA.

His excellency the Vice Roy Don Juan Ruiz de Apolaca.

From Fern Cruz, November 7.

Besides the capture of Mina, and the destruction of all his band, I have to communicate to you another important event, namely: that the ringleader Bergara has just delivered himself up, with all his men, to the royal troops at Puente del Rey, by availing himself of the In-dulto published on the occasion of the queen having been happily delivered of a princess.

Norfolk, January 28.

The following intelligence was communicated to the keeper of the Steam Boat Hotel Reading Room Books by a passenger in the cutter Flying Fish:— Just before the cutter left St. Thomas, which was the 10th instant, a gentleman arrived there from the Main, bringing accounts of a recent engagement between the Patriots and Royalists on the plains of Valencia, in which the former were totally defeated. Another battle was expected to be fought in a few days at Torredos, which it was supposed would decide the fate of that province.

New-York, Jan. 30.

LATEST FROM FRANCE.

The brig Factor, Captain, arrived at this port last evening, from Havre, whence she sailed on the 13th of Dec.— Captain C. has favored the editors of the nister at Paris.

LATEST FROM GIBRALTAR.

By the brig Helen, captain Frost, we have received Gibraltar papers to the 7th ultimo, but they contain nothing new.— They are clad in black for the death of tants were requested by the governor of the garrison to wear the appropriate mourning.

The American squadron remained, except the frigate United States, at Alge-iras, as late as the 16th ultimo; but were to sail in a few days for Port Mahon. The United States had gone aloft, and the Erie, Gamble, was said to be at Marselles.

The American ship Augustus, Bearson, 154 days from Canton, had arrived at Gibraltar with a cargo of sugar, tea, natoons, cinnamon, &c. The ship Ann,

INFERNAL CONSPIRACY.

A concurrence of circumstances has led to the discovery of an infernal conspiracy in this city, which has been marked by no ordinary features of atrocity.— An Italian servant, in the employ of a respectable family, was dismissed by the master of the house on Thursday last for drunkenness. To revenge himself, he meditated, in company with one of his countrymen, and the black female cook in the same family, to carry their diabolical plot into effect. It appears, the Italian, after being dismissed, returned with his companion to the house the same evening, and while in the kitchen with the cook, in conference, was overheard by the chambermaid in explanation of their plans. On alarm being given, and proper search made, the two Italians were discovered and secured.

The cook confessed that their plan was to take advantage of the absence of the master of the house, who was about leaving town, and in the evening, by a given signal, were to be let into the house by her. Their design was to violate the females of the family, consisting of two ladies and two servant girls, and to murder them; after which, they intended to rob the house, set fire to it, and escape. The cook also confessed that she was to receive 150 dollars after the plot had been sold, and corroborated that part of the conspiracy which had been overheard by the maid. The parties have all been apprehended by Robert Phillips and Azel Conkling, constables of the 7th ward, secured in Bridewell, and will shortly be put on their trial. The discovery of this infernal design has prevented a terrible event, and will serve to operate as a caution to families in hiring foreign servants. These particulars have been related to us by the gentleman of the house.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Friday, Jan. 30.

The Speaker communicated to the house, the report of the commissioner of claims, on the facts of certain cases laid before him.

Mr. Ogile, from the committee to whom the subject was referred, reported a bill for the relief of Maj. Gen. Arthur St.
Clair; which was twice read and committed.

The speaker laid before the house a letter of the secretary of the navy, transmitting, in obedience to a resolution of the house, copies of proceedings of certain naval courts martial, by which Capt.
Oliver H. Perry, and Capt. John Heath, of the marines, were tried.

The message yesterday received, from the President of the U. States, by Mr. J.
J. Monroe, was read, as follows:

To the House of Representatives of the United States.

In compliance with a resolution of the house of Representatives, of the 23d of December last, requesting information relative to the imprisonment and detention in confinement, of Richd. W. Meade, a citizen of the U. States; I now transmit to the house a report from the secretary of state, containing the information requested.

JAMES MONROE.

Washington, Jan. 29, 1818.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

The secretary of state, to whom was referred the resolution of the house of representatives of the 23d of December last, requesting the President to cause to be laid before the house, any information he may be able to communicate, relative to the imprisonment, and detention in confinement of Richard W. Meade, a citizen of the United States, has the honor of submitting to the President the accompanying papers, received at the department, on that subject; with a letter addressed to the minister of Spain, residing here, since the resolution of the house, and the answer received from him.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

MR. ADAMS TO MR. ONIS.

Don Luis de Onis, Envoy Extraordinary, and Minister Plenipotentiary, from Spain.

Department of State.

Washington, 26th Dec. 1817.

Sir—I am directed by the President of the United States, to invite your immediate attention, and to urge that of your government, to the case of Richard W. Meade, a citizen of the U. States, who has been confined since the 2d of May, 1816, in the prison Santa Catalina, at Cadix.

It has been repeatedly represented to your government by the minister of the United States at Madrid, that the imprisonment of this person, was under a sentence of a tribunal at Cadix, condemning him to pay a second time, a sum of money, which, by virtue of a prior decree of the same tribunal, he had already paid into the royal treasury. This fact has never been denied or contested by your government. It has been proved to them by the attestations and certificates of their own officers.

It was to have been presumed that, upon the first moment that such a fact was emphatically presented to your government, an order would instantly have issued from it for the discharge of Mr.
Meade from his imprisonment. The President regrets that after so many and such urgent representations in his behalf by the minister of the United States at Madrid, it should yet be necessary to address this call upon the most common principle of justice to you. I am instructed by him to say, that in renewing this demand for Mr. Meade's immediate liberation, he confidently expects it will not be in vain.

I pray you, sir, to accept the assurance of my very distinguished consideration.

JOHN Q. ADAMS.

MR. ONIS TO MR. ADAMS.

The chevalier Don Luis de Onis to the Secretary of State.

Sir—I received your note dated the 26th of this month, in which, by order of the President, you communicate to me what appears to have taken place in Spain, in the case of a law-suit against Richard W. Meade, a citizen of these states, in order that I should make the necessary preparations on this subject to the King my master, and solicit his release from confinement.

In compliance with the wishes of the President and your's, sir, I shall, with great pleasure, make this request in favor of Mr. Meade, although I am not informed of the details of the suit instituted against him, nor of those which have produced his confinement.

Confiding in the just intentions of the king, and his high consideration for the United States, I must hope that his majesty will attend efficaciously to this request, and use his authority in having justice promptly done to Mr. Meade, that the laws may be observed with the strictest impartiality, and no motive or pretext left to doubt of the immaculate (a cendrada) purity which has ever been ac-knowledgeed as the particular attribute of the Spanish Magistracy. I renew my respects to you, sir, and pray God to preserve you many years.

LUIS DE ONIS.

Washington City, Dec. 29, 1817.

FOR THE GAZETTE.

To an uninformed, casual observer, the idea of real horses being introduced in a theatre hitherto exclusively devoted to the actions of men, carries with it an air of incredibility or deceptive mystery.— Many, no doubt, elated with their own wonderful penetration, have determined to guard against this glaring improbability, and are also prepared to caution their proselytes against this thorough-going imposition. Go on, gentlemen! you will never become bankrupt by your credulity.
It is a very fine thing to have a good understanding; and while others are duped, you will enjoy the gratification of having escaped the snare, and may pride yourself upon your own sagacity. But after all, are you quite sure that you are not yourselves betraying the most palpable folly? Does not the authority of the managers—the alterations in the theatre —nay, the very arrival of the horses—condemn your unbelief, and prove the reality of the fact?

But if the mere appearance of horses on a stage, can thus excite our wonder, by what term shall we express our surprise when their astonishing feats are exhibited, and when those novelties which have commanded the admiration of the citizens of our largest cities, shall be repeated? Although the sensibility of the horses will, in TIMOUR THE TARTAR, be put to the proof—the very interesting incidents of the spectacle having always been sufficient to bring crowded houses—yet the horses' stock of knowledge will by no means be exhausted; for we verily believe that in sagacity and sound sense, they are equal if not superior to the grave Thymianus which Gulliver has given the world some knowledge of in his celebrated travels.

Messrs. Wynne, Stewart, &c.
Zorilda (Princess of Mingrelia) Mrs. Entwisle Selima (in love with Kerim) Monier
Liska Miss Trajetta

A description of the most prominent scenery, &c.
Act 1. The interior of Timour's Fortress, with a BRIDGE in the back ground—on one side of the stage a POWER in which Agib is confined. A MAGNIFICENT PROCESSION of the Tartars over the Bridge on HORSEBACK, conducting ZORILDA, who is mounted on a Courser richly caparisoned; the courser kneels and Zorilda dismounts.
Scene 3. A SPIRITED TOURNA-MENT. Timour and Zorilda enter and seat themselves on thrones to witness the Combat of Kerim & Sanballat, who at that moment enter the LIST on HORSEBACK. Kerim's Horse takes part in the combat, and drags Sanballat to the ground. Kerim dismounts and proposes to renew the combat on foot—the horses are led away and the fight begins. Kerim falls and loses his sword; his rival rushes to despatch him; at that instant, Kerim's Horse interposes to save his Master.

Sanballat in turn stabs the Horse, Who falls and expires at his Master's feet.

Act 2. A splendid BRIDAL CHAMBER, belonging to Timour.
The last Scene represents Timour's FORTRESS by moonlight. A TREMENDOUS CATARACT & WATERFALL, over which is an arched bridge. One side of the stage represents the EXTERIOR of Timour's FORTRESS. A variety of smaller Towers and Terraces appear in the perspective.

During this scene, the Georgians and Mingrelians engage the Tartars on horse and foot. Timour himself ON HORSEBACK appears and encourages his troops—he becomes personally engaged, and is dismounted—he is pursued and not having time to enter a PORTCULLIS leading to the interior of his castle, he climbs the battlements, and reaches in safety the TURRET'S TOP—he brings forth Zorilda and threatens to destroy her unless Agib, who has escaped to the Georgians, is restored to him—she breaks from him and runs to the bridge, from which she leaps into the water—Agib on horseback rushes after her.—The Georgians with a BATTERING-RAM make a breach in Timour's castle—ALL THE HORSES ENTER.—At the conclusion of the General Engagement, Agib having recovered his mother, returns with her on horseback. TIMOUR IS OVERTHROWN, but Zorilda spares his life at the intercession of Agib and Oglou.

PRELUDING THE SPECTACLE, Will be presented the celebrated comedy called Laugh when you can.

Sally for Sale.
THIS Estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry. Plaster of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those now unfilled are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.
For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.
A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds and the crops of the present year if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.
Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

Valuable Land for Sale.
THE subscriber wishes to sell two valuable Tracts of Land—one situated in the upper part of Fairfax county, adjoining the lands of Samuel G. Griffith, and bounded north by the Potomac river, containing 700 acres, about one half in wood; of the cleared land a considerable proportion is first river bottom, equal in fertility to any in Virginia; the upland is well situated for farming and of a good quality. There is also a mill seat on the Tract of considerable value. This farm is worth the attention of any person wishing to engage in the farming business, as it certainly is not exceeded by any in the county (perhaps state) as a farm of profit, and may be had on reasonable terms. Mr. John Bickler, who resides near the land, will show it, and Mr. Wm. McCarty of Loudoun county, or Mr. John W. Brown of Georgetown, b. c. will make known the terms. If this Tract is not disposed of before the 2nd of MARCH, it will then be exposed to PUBLIC SALE, at Wiley's Tavern, on the road leading from Alexandria to Leesburg.
The other Tract contains 1000 acres, and is the upper and most valuable part of the Tract I live on. It is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and bounded N. by Accotink creek. This Tract will be divided to suit purchasers, if found necessary. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber living at Cedar Grove, who will show the land and make known the terms.

James Kennedy & Son, RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,
No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or looseness in the stomach and bowels.
This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.
Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascariides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.
Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and foetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and looseness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.
Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.
A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.
Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN'S INFALLIBLE PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, in Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, in Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
